Using Firefox in Schools

Firefox doesn’t take its location from the location in the Apple menu.

Changing locations in Firefox requires a visit to Firefox menu and select Preferences.
Now you need to find the Connection settings, in my version they are in Advanced - Network – Settings. On some versions this is under the General tab.

For when you are at school - select Manual proxy
When at Home - select Direct connection to the internet

Now select OK